ADMIRAL BLEECKER

IS AN INTERESTING FIGURE IN NASHVILLE—COMING HERE.

Had Reached Highest Rank in United States Navy When He Retired a Year Ago.

Says the Nashville Banner:

"An interesting personage reached Nashville Saturday evening, the gentleman in question being Rear Admiral J. U. B. Bleeker, late of the United States navy. Admiral Bleeker is in the city to attend the marriage of his son to Miss Anna Parkes, of 1718 West End avenue, but will visit Paducah, Ky., for a few days and return in time for that event.

"Admiral Bleeker has been in the navy for over forty years and retired only about one year ago. He is a gentleman of decidedly pleasing address and though he attained the highest position possible in his calling, is most gracious in his manner and not of that gruffy nature sometimes noticeable in those accustomed to command.

"During his forty odd years of service Admiral Bleeker has visited almost every port at which Uncle Sam's big men of war touch and his experience is world wide.

"Admiral Bleeker's retirement from active service was evidently not on account of any physical disability, but attend to his duties as ranking officer. He is in the best of health and apparently able to render yet many years of valuable service to the United States should he be called upon to do so."

Admiral Bleeker will arrive in Paducah Thursday to be the guest of his son, Mr. John Bleeker.

Mrs. Cora E. Williams.

Mrs. Cora E. Williams, wife of S. T. Williams, of 626 South Tenth street, died last night at 5 o'clock of cancer of the stomach after an illness of several weeks. She was a well known and popular resident of the South Side. She was 31 years old and the wife of an Illinois Central employee. The body was today taken to Bowling Green, her former home, for burial.

Chicken Thief Busy.

Chicken thieves are still operating in Paducah and Mrs. C. Thompson, of West Jefferson street, lost eight hens and one rooster last night and Mrs. W. L. Bennett, who resides next door, also lost several hens. This makes the second time thieves have robbed Mrs. Thompson of chickens.

Bids for New Residences.

Architect Lassiter has opened bids for the residences of Mrs. Hanna F. Levy on North Eighth street and for renovating work on the residence of Mr. W. E. Covington, on Jefferson street near Eighth street. B. T. Davis had the lowest bid on Mrs. Levy's house at $5,862, and J. M. Byrd had the lowest bid on the Covington contract at $1,920.

Married in Metropolis. Alonzo Williams, a railroad section boss, and Myrtle Ryan, of this city, were married in Metropolis, Ill., this morning by Justice Thomas Liggett.

PADUCAH'S PUGILIST

Leaving Our Shores to Make Illinois His Home.

Paducah's only professional pugilist the "Alabama Kid," colored, has left Paducah for good. He is now located in Champaign, Ill., and came back to Paducah today to pack his few belongings to leave for good. He had fought some pretty stiff fights here and had won the title of "pugilist." He had a challenge for a meeting with Will Walker, of Cincinnati, at Mound City this morning but can not arrange. He has fought a few exhibitions in Illinois but will not fight any more, he says, unless it be principals and not preliminaries. He is training with a view of making pugilism a means of livelihood.

CHAMPION SOLICITOR.

Title Earned By Miss Marguerite Forkel.

It requires pluck to solicit subscriptions for a publication, but to sign a contract to secure 50,000 subscribers and then set about to get the names and money without spending time considering the huge undertaking, requires more pluck than the ordinary man possesses. Just one little brunette has signed such a contract and her name is Miss Marguerite Forkel, of Rochester, who has earned the sobriquet "Champion lady solicitor." In fourteen months she has visited eighteen states and annexed 32,000 subscribers. She is in Paducah today charming signatures to subscription slips.

LEST YOU FORGET.

All tax-payers are hereby respectfully reminded that the first half of city taxes are now due.

Ten per cent penalty is added to all June bills remaining unpaid July 1st. We desire that you escape this additional cost, and also the annoyance of waiting your turn in the rush of the last days. Therefore we request you to kindly call at the treasurer's office soon as possible, and greatly oblige yours,

JOHN J. DORIAN,
City Treasurer.
